

CV Jasmina Šarić

Graduated in art history and philosophy at the University of Split and has obtained a master's degree in curatorial studies at Stockholm University, with the topic of curating art in heterotopic spaces. Since 2013 she has been working as an independent curator and has so far written about and curated more than 20 exhibitions and art projects. Since 2018, she has been engaged in the work of the Studio -21- gallery in Split, where she is involved in educational programs, and where she works as a curator since 2020. She is a member of the international artistic-curatorial collective Tails and one of the co-founders of the platform "Culture Hub Croatia". As a curator, she has also worked with different institutions in Croatia and internationally.

